Jeanne –

We have been working very hard at JEA to increase communications and transparency. Our desire to include the entire JCC membership is in furtherance of this pursuit. The JEA leadership believes the conversation on the future of JEA is an important conversation for the entire community.

Regardless of the decision of JCC executive committee, we will host the meeting on June 10, 2019 at 1pm ET at the JEA building (17th floor). If we need more room we will find a bigger room. More the merrier.

Sincerely –
Aaron

FYI. Just landed in Orlando. This was their original request and, after discussing with Tim, it was decided that a small group would meet to learn more about the numbers and assumptions and then we would prepare a list of questions to send to Aaron. We would then invite Aaron to a future JCC meeting to discuss his presentation and our questions. I clearly outlined this for him several weeks ago. This is a last minute change and it is interesting that he has copied some of the newer and younger members — all of whole were originally nominated by Ricky.

I think we should stick to our original plan and have the meeting on 6/10 with the small group and I will reiterate our process and position.

They may then decide to cancel but that will be on them and we can then decide how to proceed.

In addition, we can discuss this at EC on 6/12.

Would appreciate your advice.

Jeanne,

In separate conversations with both Aaron and Kerri, they would like for all members of the Civic Council to be invited to this meeting to hear Aaron's presentation first hand and have the opportunity to ask questions. As important a topic as this is, I think that's a good idea. We need as many people as possible educated on the matter. I know that might not have been the original intent of this meeting, but I think we should take advantage of the time slot to do so.

Henry

A small group of our JEA subcommittee would like to schedule some time to talk with you and your team about the power point presentation and ‘status quo’ financial projections. Ideally, we would like to block off 2 hours of time to meet with you.

Would you please provide me (and please copy Ines) with your availability during the weeks of 5/13 and 5/20? We are also checking schedules with our team but it would be helpful to know if there are some definite go or no go dates for you.
