FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JACKSONVILLE CITY COUNCIL JEA FACT-FINDING WORKSHOPS BEGIN NOVEMBER 6, 2019

The Jacksonville City Council announces a series of fact-finding workshops on the JEA, beginning on Wednesday, November 6th and continuing twice monthly through May 2020. The City Council will meet in the Lynwood Roberts Room on the first floor of City Hall at 11:00 a.m. on the Monday of City Council meeting weeks (weeks of the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month) to perform an intensive review of the history and current condition of the JEA, its relationship to the Consolidated City of Jacksonville, and various factors relating to a potential recapitalization, privatization or reorganization of the utility. Council Member Michael Boylan (District 6) will chair the workshop process. The public is welcome to attend and observe the workshops.

Planned topics for the workshops include:

November 6, 2019	The Role of the Independent Authorities vis-à-vis City Council (only Wednesday meeting)
November 25, 2019	The PFM Report; Council Auditor's 2018 Report; 2018 City Council Special Committee on the Future of JEA report
December 9, 2019	A Review of the JEA's Strategic Planning Process & Outcomes Leading Up to the Release of the Invitation To Negotiate
January 13, 2020	A Review of the 2019 JEA Audit & an Analysis of the Factors Leading to the Consideration of the Need for Restructuring the JEA (The McKinsey Report)
January 27, 2019	Rationale for and Advantages/Disadvantages of Moving Forward with Scenario #1: Status Quo Plan
February 10, 2020	Rationale for and Advantages/Disadvantages of Moving Forward with Scenario #2: Traditional Utility Response Plan
February 24, 2020	Rationale for and Advantages/Disadvantages of Moving Forward with Scenario #3: Community Ownership Plan
March 9, 2020	Rationale for and Advantages/Disadvantages of Moving Forward with Scenario #4: Initial Public Offering Plan
March 23, 2020	Rationale for and Advantages/Disadvantages of Moving Forward with Scenario #5: Strategic Alternative from ITN 129-19
April 13, 2020	The Administration's Vision of How the Sale Proceeds Would be Utilized Should Scenario #5 be Implemented
